

Sustainable Development Practice Graduate Certificate (SDP)
Verification of Completed Requirements

To earn the SDP Graduate Certificate, each student must complete 12-15 credit hours of approved coursework. To verify completion of these requirements, each student must complete this form and submit it to Cindy Tarter, Program Coordinator (ctarter@ufl.edu), to Grinter 470 during the last semester of his/her degree program. The submission deadlines are: April 15th for Spring graduation and December 1st for Fall graduation.

Student Name: _____ UFID: _____

Degree: _____ Graduation Semester/Year: _____

Address (to mail certificate): _____
Street address/PO Box

_____

City/State and/or Province/Country

_____

Zip Code or Country Code

Email address: (for SDP alumni listserv after graduation): _____

List below the titles and numbers of the classes taken that fulfill the curriculum requirements of the SPD certificate, referring to your approved study plan. Master's students are required to complete 12 credit hours and PhD students are required to complete 15 credit hours. All students are required to have taken LAS 6943/AFS 6905: Development Theory & Practice in Africa and Latin America. Master's students are required to complete an additional 9 credits from existing MDP courses or equivalents, while PhD students are required to complete an additional 12 credits of MDP courses or equivalents.

1. LAS 6943/AFS 6905 _____ Development Theory and Practice in Africa and Latin America
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____